

Walking on Frozen river of Zaskar is an ultimate experience for adventure lover. The traditional name of the trek is "Chadar trek" the frozen sheet, which was only route for Zaskaris in winter when all other ways are closed due to heavy snow fall at high passes. Therefore, it had been trade route for centuries for Zaskar People.

This is the most isolated and made inaccessible for nearly eight months a year due to heavy snowfall resulting in closure of all the access passes, Zaskar has the distinction of being the least interfered, thus one of the last few surviving cultural centers of Tibet. Chadar trek allows you to experience the remote villages and to visit some of the villages along the Zaskar River in the midst of winter and thus catch a glimpse of the life during the snowfall time of the year. A visit to the ancient monastic establishments of Karsha and Zangla for sure gives an insight into the mysteries of this Shangri-la, a land and culture frozen in time behind the Zaskar Mountains.
