

Place/Region	Kumaraparvatha Peaks comes under 102.59 sq kms of Pushpagiri WLS, is indeed a very popular trek route. At 1712 meters Pushpagiri this is the 2nd highest hill in Coorg/Kodugu, the trail takes goes through rich forest cover and some rocky patches. With a good amount of water source and easy access by road many trekkers use this trail to reach the peaks of Kumaraparvatha range, which is otherwise a tough trek from Kukke side. Pushpagiri WLS is also been proposed as a World Heritage site a rich Kadamakkal Reserve Forest is a part of the WLS and adjoins Bisle Reserve Forest to north, Kukke Subramanya Forest to the west.
